

GKM Ventures, with offices in Los Angeles (HQ) and Redwood Shores, is a leading expansion stage venture capital fund investing $1.5 to $5 million in rapidly growing technology companies located in the Western U.S. Our industry preference spans several growth sectors: Communications, enterprise software and IT services, semiconductors and digital media.

INVESTMENT PROFILE:

We looking for companies with the following six criteria:

- Accomplished management teams
- Accelerating revenue growth
- Leadership in an emerging market
- Attractive gross margins
- Solid technology capabilities
- Expanding customer pipeline

WHY GKM VENTURES?

- GKM Ventures is operated by experienced senior executives and funded primarily by a select group of seasoned technology industry executives. These industry experts meet regularly with both portfolio companies and investment prospects to lend their expertise and industry contacts.
- Our managing directors offer extensive backgrounds in both operating and financial management roles at all stages of a company’s life cycle, including start-up, launch, expansion, acquisition, IPO and/or merger.
- We are extremely well networked throughout the region, especially in Silicon Valley and Southern California, and actively apply these relationships to the benefit of our portfolio companies.
- The fund has the capital to deliver on our promise to add value to portfolio companies.
- We will prefer to co-lead a syndicate of leading local venture firms who would contribute both industry knowledge and skills in corporate finance and governance.
